K-Bay Taxiway Opened Tuesday

A $500,000 taxiway, constructed by A. C. Chuck Co., Inc., was officially opened here Tuesday at 9:45 a.m. by Col. Jack E. Chan, Station commanding officer, after a "thumbs up" inspection by Mr. William Hayes of the District Public Works Office. As the first flight of F4U Fury jets ended down the new strip, Lt. Col. Jack E. Clonigan, aircraft operations officer, commented, "We now have a straight shot at the runway which will expedite traffic and simplify control."

On recently started fill along the shore line of Kaneohe Bay the 400-foot strip was completed by the Chuck company with an 18-man crew in four and one-half months. A. C. Chuck also has the contract to build the new coast crew barracks which, according to Mr. Harry Chuck, should be finished by Jan. 15, 1953.

Powerful Air-Ground Team To Note MarCor Birthday

One hundred eighty-two years of colorful and glorious Marine Corps history will be noted when the 1st Marine Brigade, FMF, displays its men and equipment in a full-scale combat review and parade, mounted review and fly-by starting at 10 a.m. next Saturday, Nov. 9 on runway 19-36 of the Kaneohe Bay Marine Corps Air Station. It will be in honor of the 182nd anniversary of the U. S. Marine Corps which occurs Sunday, Nov. 10.

Lt. Gen. Edwin A. Pollock, commanding general, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, will review this member unit of his far-flung command.

Designated commanding officer of troops is Col. Ronald E. Wilds, Brigade chief of staff. Maj. George M. Martin is designated adjutant.

The 1st Marine Brigade Band and Drum and Bugle Corps will provide music for the occasion.

Brigade Leathernecks will appear in utility uniform, steel helmets, light marching packs and normal arms. Rifles with fixed bayonets and BAR's will be carried as they march throughout the ceremony.

Before the massed colors and troops, the Marine Corps Birthday message from the Marine Corps Command will be read. The reading of other congratulatory messages will follow.

Following this ceremony, a battalion of the 4th Marines will lead the parade behind the band. Behind the 4th Marines will be SEMR-101, 2nd Bn., 12th Marines, FMF-13, Service Co., and vehicles and equipment and mounted elements.

As the officers and men of SEMR-101 pass the reviewing stand, three OH-105 aircraft and 12 HRS's will fly by. Twelve AD Skyraiders will roar in the air overhead as SEMR-13 troops and equipment pass, and as the last motorized element of Service Co. passes the reviewing stand, 12 F4U Fury's and 12 F4U Fury's will fly by.

The ceremony is open to all Marines and their dependents, and properly sponsored civilian guests. Adequate seating will be provided.

Military policemen will be on hand to direct spectators to the seating area in addition to directing the flow of automobile traffic.

Nursery Manager Position Open

The Management Board of the Station Children's Nursery is now accepting applications for the position of nursery manager. It was announced by Lt. Col. Frederick C. Dodson this week.

A mature person with previous experience is being sought to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Mrs. Eleanor Deino.

Interested persons should submit a letter of application to the Management Board, Station Children's Nursery, MCAS, Navy 980, P.O. San Francisco. The letter should contain a summary of previous experience and list appropriate qualifications.

Applicants will receive a personal interview, Lt. Col. Dodson announced.

The nursery manager's job is on a contract basis.

For further details or to arrange an appointment, call 72610.

Choppers Chauffeur Mainland Newsmen

Six newsmen from the Eastern United States were treated to a helicopter familiarization flight Thursday by SEMR-101. All representatives of major newspapers or wire services, a trial of 18 newsmen had been scheduled to visit Kaneohe as part of a tour of island military facilities as guests of the Secretary of the Navy.

However, unexpected decrease in sudden rain squall and reduced visibility changed the plan for the choppers to bring the newsmen to K-Bay from Boardman Field at Camp E. M. Smith. Instead, six of the 18 guests elected to take a hop around the Camp Smith area.

'If I Am Captured ...'

"If I am captured I will continue to resist by all means available. I will make every effort to escape and aid others to escape. I will accept neither parole nor special favors from the enemy."

Those three sentences are a declaration of a basic duty of all American servicemen. It is a duty of each man to do his basic job, to fight for his country.

American fighting men have done the job well over the past two centuries. They have fought, been wounded, died living up to the thought behind the phrases above.

Those phrases now are written for all to see. They are part of the Code of Conduct for members of the Armed Forces. The meaning of the Code is clear.

We must live by it. Others have died for it.—(AFPS)

TOASTMASTERS CLUB 1805

By Shipp Wishall

"TOASTMASTERS FOR SERVICEMEN"

"Toastmasters for me—a serviceman?" This is the sum of the mill answer I generally receive when trying to sell Toastmasters. Another one is "But I never intended to be an after dinner speaker or even a Toastmaster." That may be true. But you may have the occasion to give findings reports on inspections or training methods and in some cases on an organization to which you belong. Perhaps you have already had that experience. Then let me ask this question: "Were you a success?" Did you put over your points in the way you desired?

What is this recurring disease that afflicts us whenever a senior calls on us to explain our position or to express a stand on some point? The symptoms can be easily recognized. We shift our weight from one leg to the other, unexplained itches develop, our hands fumble, and finally the atmospheric pressure changes from 14.7 to 29.4. Have you ever noticed how easy it is to talk with someone over the phone, yet how reticent you may feel about meeting the same person in a face to face situation?

This ill at ease feeling is a very normal thing. Very few of us are born with the inherent ability to stand on our own two feet and deliver a coherent talk. Here is where Toastmasters come to the rescue and help their fellow members to develop good speaking habits.

By constant practice, each member rids himself of the fear of facing an audience. He learns to think while speaking—not merely to utter words, but to use reason and logic.

Here is a very important thought: Toastmasters are not professional speakers. They are men of business, industry, educators and military. Every military base on the Island of Oahu has a Toastmasters Club. When we say that Toastmasters is more than a club, it's an education, we mean that every member is making a concerted effort to improve himself, to become a more valuable asset in his chosen field.

We cannot all learn to play golf like Ben Hogan or Sam Snead. But with practice we can certainly better our score.

So it is with Toastmasters training. We can all better ourselves according to our natural talent by fully utilizing our God-given abilities.

The Staff NCO Toastmasters invite you to attend their weekly Wednesday meeting. The place is the Staff NCO Club ballroom and the time 6:30 p.m. Within 90 fast moving minutes you'll ask yourself "Why didn't I take advantage of this opportunity sooner." Here's your open invitation to a wonderful education—Toastmasters.

Pay Telephone Sites Announced

A recent beneficial suggestion indicated some people are not aware of the location of pay telephones aboard the Marine Corps Air Station. The phones are located as follows:

Two phones in Bldg. 219, Marine Exchange Lobby. There is one pay telephone located in each of the following buildings: Bldg. 351 (PW Transportation), Bldg. 388 (TOQ-Guest House), Bldg. 503 (BOQ Lobby), Bldg. 1090 (Bowling alley); and the following 4th Marines' barracks, Bldgs. 1029, 1036, 1043, 1052, 1057, 1061.

In the near future, a pay phone will be installed in the EM-Club.

Overseas long distance calls may be placed at the Marine Exchange lobby during the following hours:

Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday—4:30 to 9:30 p.m.
 Monday and Thursday—Closed.
 Saturday—1 to 9:30 p.m.
 Sunday—9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

THE PERSONAL CHOICE

The gift of life is our most precious possession. And while we had nothing whatsoever to do with the gift, we have everything to do with the way we use it. We may live our lives well or we live them shabbily. The choice is up to us.

Our choices are many. We may choose to worship God or we may choose to ignore Him. But the Holy Scripture teaches us that man desperately needs God. Experience teaches us that, without God, we do indeed live our lives shabbily. When we turn to God and seek to keep His Commandments, we are compelled to put away the rubbish of life and embrace loftier standards of thought and conduct.

King David worshipped God and found dignity and purpose to life. From his experience with God he was able to say, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. . . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me. . . ."

Why not make the most out of life? A good way to begin is by attending church this Sunday. Remember . . . the choice is up to you! It is your life!

the K-BAY KIBITZER by bradley

After a premature billing in the Station newspaper, the Air Force show "Tops in Blue" did hit the main theater last Friday—apparently under unusual circumstances.

Now I say this even though I was unable to make the show. The "unusual circumstances" consisted of a full house and a fine audience. The reports I received were rather astonishing as a matter of fact.

A couple of weeks ago I commented on what a poor showing was made for the Aloha Week Preview. I realize these two shows were of a vastly different nature BUT in the couple of weeks I have been here I don't recall any stage attraction drawing a full house.

As far as the fine audience, I understand there were times when there wasn't a sound to be heard except that which was issuing from the stage. Applause was warm, genuine and proper.

I'm really sorry I missed the show now because I'm sure I would have enjoyed it tremendously and, more than that, it would have done my heart good to see such a turnout for a change. Let's keep it up!

I came across something in the WINDWARD REPORTER last week that tickled me a bit. Tucked away at the bottom of a column on page three of this local weekly newspaper was the following:

"In a fourth grade letter-writing class, the following was submitted by one of the pupils.

"Dear Helicopters:

"I think you noisy bunch of things that fly in the air should go to a HELICOPTER SCHOOL where you belong. You should be taught to fly around over an empty field somewhere, otherwise, I think you should not fly over our schools; we can't even think! REMEMBER that.

"Not a Friend,
 BECKY"

It turned out that this young lady attends Waimanalo School. The choppers were pretty active in that area last year, while Bellows Field was open, but even the school principal admits that it has been relatively quiet this year.

Anyway, the letter did not go unnoticed by pilots in Marine Helicopter Squadron 161. Some of them apparently got a kick out of it, including their public-spirited CO, Lt. Col. Stanley W. Titterud.

Upshot of this is that the possibility of flying a helicopter to the school is being investigated. If it can be arranged, the chopper will be landed on the school athletic field and most of the classes will be brought out, one at a time to hear about and look at the HELICOPTER THAT WENT TO SCHOOL.

I understand that Mr. Harry Budine, principal at Waimanalo, is most favorably inclined.

Some members of the Honolulu Press Club had a "family day" at the Officers Club Sunday. While the group that showed up was much smaller than anticipated, it appeared that the families included a considerable number of the smaller set.

Leaning over the railing during the afternoon were three club members who were attempting to decide what type of group was using the club facilities. At the time, Bob Krauss was emceeing some children's games in the lower lanai.

The conclusion arrived at after much discussion and viewing of the proceedings was that it must be a "Sunday school picnic."

You may have your own ideas but this is one characterization that I never expected to hear applied, even in part, to members of the press, although they certainly are no different from the next person on the street.

Nothing in particular has brought the subject to my attention but it occurs to me that there might be a few persons who would be interested in just what is involved in producing a WINDWARD MARINE every week. Briefly, this is the time schedule.

Monday starts the new publishing week so the procedure is to get together as much of the standard items as possible, such as the movie column and club notes. The more material that can be whipped on Monday, the easier it is to handle late news. Monday is also the day when a look is taken at what the week might have to offer, with the hope that plans made at that point won't have to be changed over five or six times by Wednesday night.

Tuesday is much the same except that the pressure begins to build up and as much copy as possible must be turned out for delivery to the printer. Most of the artwork must either be in hand or be planned for at this point.

Wednesday is a terrible day. All kinds of little items suddenly turn up unexpectedly. The pressure is on to get all photographs in, cropped and spotted so that they can be fired off to the engraver in Kaimuki. Wednesday is the absolute deadline for copy. Usually part of it goes to the printer during the day and the remainder at night whenever the job is done—often quite late in the evening. If there is training Wednesday afternoon, this complicates matters considerably.

Thursday is press day. Most of the staff of three spends the day at the printers, reading proofs, making last minute decisions, rewinding heads, and adjusting to equipment breakdowns. With luck, the page proofs for all eight pages are completed by Thursday night.

Friday is circulation day. Most of the day is spent between the plant and the Air Station. If the presses and the folder hold up, the first papers hit the Station about 10 a.m. and the last trip winds up about 3 p.m.

BIG BROTHER is watching little brother manipulating the business end of a street boom. Cpl. Donald P. Sacuzana, left, is in H&SCo., 1st Br., 4th Marines, while Pfc. Carlase Sacuzana is in the machine gun platoon of 1st Br.'s "C" Co. The two Marine brothers recently returned to K-Bay from Pohakuloa where, in addition to training, they were permitted a chance to visit their home and birthplace, Paioa, Hawaii.

Committee Named To Select Prexy For Mokapu PTA

A nominating committee to select a president for the Mokapu Elementary School PTA was named last Thursday at the monthly meeting of that group. The duties of president are presently being performed by Navy CWO William H. Garing, PTA vice-president.

Named to the committee were Cdr. John D. Miller, Chief Storekeeper Joseph Berry, Maj. Francis A. McMullen, Maj. William G. McGraw and Lt. Cdr. James E. Forrest. Nominations will be voted on during the next meeting of the PTA.

The monthly meeting opened with the showing of a 10-minute film entitled "Safety on School Buses." The film is scheduled to be presented to Mokapu School children.

Good news for parents of Mokapu school children was announced by Mr. James K. P. Lee principal, to the effect that they wouldn't have to pay the increase in the price of lunches in the school cafeteria, as established by the Territorial Commissioners of Public Instruction. Lunches in other territorial schools have been boosted to 35 cents, whereas Mokapu School will retain the 25-cent lunch fee.

The kindergarten classes provided refreshments.

Mrs. Helen Lacey's first grade class won the banner for parent attendance.

The next meeting of the Mokapu PTA will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 21.

Diver Finds Ring Lost 32 Years

Not often does someone get a phone call asking, "Did you lose a high school ring marked 'Class of '25'?"

A very flabbergasted Mr. Paul A. Goo, from the Island of Hawaii, did receive the call and did lose the ring.

Capt. Jim C. Robinson of HEMER-161 was the whimsical caller and he found the ring, with Mr. Goo's name engraved inside, while skin diving in the waters off the coast of Hawaii, near Hilo Airport.

After recovering from the direct question, Mr. Goo said, "I'll be darned, I lost that ring 32 years ago, and frankly had pretty much forgot about it."

Certain Marines To Be Eligible For Special Pay

Marine Corps participation in the proficiency advancement program, as announced by Secretary of Defense, will entitle the qualified Marine to receive all pay and allowances of the next higher pay grade, it was revealed this week by ALMAR-13.

The increased pay, however, does not include military prerogatives. Advances will be allotted to all occupational fields; but the numbers are controlled and limited.

Those eligible are E-3 through E-6 with two years service. Pay grades E-3, 4 and 5 must have at least six months in grade and E-6 12 months in grade.

Outstanding effectiveness in an assigned skill and a passing mark for the next higher grade will be the determining factor in awarding increased pay.

The first advancements will be made in the Spring of 1958. These advances will be made from those tested in the 57-2 and 58-1 testing periods or those previously qualified.

Detailed instructions will be available soon and the program is contingent on Secretary of Defense approval. It is not applicable to the Marine Corps Reserve.

If it's news, call the WINDWARD MARINE at 72104.

CERTAIN TOP LEVEL BILLETS REDESIGNATED BY GEN. PATE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, Commandant of the Marine Corps, announced last week that the President has approved his recommendation for the redesignation of certain top level billets in order to simplify the organization of Headquarters Marine Corps. Under the new organization, the functions of the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps and the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps for Air will be joined in a single office—to be designated the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps.

The functions of the Chief of Staff, heretofore combined with those of the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps, will be placed in a separate office, that of the Chief of Staff, Headquarters Marine Corps.

The newly designated Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps will hold the rank of lieutenant general. He will perform the duties of the Commandant during the latter's absence or disability, and such other duties as the Commandant may specifically direct. The billet will be held by Lt. Gen. Verne J. McCaul.

The Chief of Staff, Headquarters Marine Corps will also hold the rank of lieutenant general. As announced previously, Maj. Gen. Hogaboom, currently serving as Deputy Chief of Staff at Headquarters, will be promoted and assigned to this billet.

The office of the Director of Aviation, previously held by the Assistant Commandant for Air as a concurrent assignment, will be a separate office. This billet will be filled by a general officer. He will be responsible to the Commandant of the Marine Corps for planning, coordinating, and supervising matters and activities pertaining to Marine Aviation.

The new organization will become effective about Dec. 1, 1957.

MAAG Officer With Chinese Corps Reports Formosan Duty Advantages

"Only tour of duty left where married NCOs rate servants," smiled Col. Howard B. Benge last Wednesday when queried about the U. S. Marines stationed with the Chinese Nationalist Marine Corps on Formosa.

Col. Benge, Marine officer in charge of the Military Assistance and Advisory group and escort for Lt. Gen. Lo Yu-Lun during his extensive tour of Marine Corps and Navy installations, explained that for the 23 Marine officers and 16 enlisted men he commands it is considered choice duty.

The Chinese Nationalist Marine Corps was ten years old Sept. 16 and is similar in dress and table of organization to the U. S. Marine Corps. Their emblem, in place of the eagle, has the Chinese Star.

Chinese Marine Corps troops have khaki and green uniforms and officers include whites. They also use a jacket type blouse and wear leggings and rubber shoes instead of boots.

Personnel procurement is by draft and from two sources, the Chinese Mainland and Formosa. The mainland draftees are in for a "career" and the Taiwanese, which comprise 40 per cent of the Corps, have a three year hitch.

U. S. Marines enjoying this "almost China duty" are on a two year tour.

Stuffy says he knows a lot of soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines who never chase women. Those men are too fine, too decent, and too old.

Community Chest Drive Completed

Although the final totals are still unavailable, it was disclosed last week that 1st Marine Brigade and Air Station personnel contributed approximately $5,000 to the 1957 Community Chest Drive.

Out of the limited totals that were released it was noted that Station Public Works contributed a total of $541.00 and Navy Supply donated $498.00 to the very worthwhile cause.

Maj. Nalton M. Bennett, 1st Marine Brigade; and Maj. J. W. Kirkland of the Station were the officers-in-charge of the drive.

Because of the nature of the drive, a complete accounting is not immediately available. Contributors this year did not have to indicate the size of their contribution which was sealed in a numbered envelope. The figures given above are derived from known contributions, and could be larger.

As soon as the Hawaiian Trust Limited completes an auditing of contributions, it will in turn notify commands and other organizations of the amount contributed.

DURING his visit last Thursday, Lt. Gen. Lo Yu-Lun, Commandant of the Chinese Marine Corps, was acquainted with many aspects of the 1st Marine Brigade and the Marine Corps Air Station. In company with Col. Jack R. Cram, CO, MCAS, pictured at left, Gen. Lo listens attentively to Sgt. Ronald E. Johnson, MCAS crash crew member, giving a detailed explanation of the MB-1 crash fire (foam) truck. At right, Gen. Lo gets "checked out" in the cockpit of an AD6 Skyraider attack bomber of VMA-212 by 2nd Lt. John Dermody. The tour conducted for Gen. Lo began at Kansas Tower where he received a comprehensive briefing by Col. Cram and Brig. Gen. Avery R. Kier, Brigadier CG. He later viewed an amphibious tractor demonstration, heli-team assault on a fortified position, various aircraft of MAG-13 and the operation of the mirror landing system.—PHOTOS BY SGT. ARLEN J. Pfc. Fred L. Lover, Marine Air Control Squadron-2, MAG-13, received the "Marine of the Month" award from his squadron commander, Maj. Earle E. Bagnall, at meritorious mast last Monday.

In addition to the award, Lover was presented a letter of commendation for his outstanding performance of duty as a unit stockman last month.

His letter reads in part: "He contributed unstintingly to the successful displacement of all supplies and equipment within this squadron (MACS-2) upon evacuation to a new position."

Lover's conduct "during these unusual operations has been characterized by a high spirit of cooperation; he is heavily imbued with the faculty of working harmoniously with fellow Marines."

TRADEWINDS PAU; REPLACED BY ADS IN WINDWARD MARINE

With this issue of the WINDWARD MARINE, the weekly information bulletin, TRADEWINDS, has ceased to exist.

The latest Special Services Newsletter, Volume 5-57, dated Oct. 15, 1957, states that "Announcements or listings which are free, non-commercial in nature, and which offer personal property or services by and for local post and unit personnel for their convenience are not considered to be advertisements within the provisions of this restriction" (Para 17107.5, Marine Corps Manual). This refers to the printing of such items in unit newspapers.

The Newsletter further states that this provision of the Manual will be changed by the next revision to make this distinction clear. Accordingly, the WINDWARD MARINE will carry listings and notices within the newly authorized categories, commencing with this issue. Under the heading of BULLETIN BOARD, non-commercial listings of items by and for military personnel stationed here will be printed. This will include items for sale and for rent and such services as baby sitting.

All items for the BULLETIN BOARD must be submitted in writing to the Informational Services Office, top deck, Bldg. 220, by 4 p.m. on Tuesday for publication the next following Friday.

This is the same procedure that was required for TRADEWINDS and is necessitated by a paucity of personnel and the need to keep telephone lines open for news assignments.

ALOHA WEEK ACTIVITIES

The Supply and Comptroller Departments climaxed their Aloha Week festivities with a Hawaiian luau and pageant on Oct. 24. Employees and guests enjoyed a complete Hawaiian luncheon from kalua pig to coconut pudding. The pageantry and color which marked this 4th annual Aloha Week celebration was something that will long be remembered by malihinis as well as kamaainas.

Honored guests included Col. and Mrs. Jack R. Cram and Lt. Col. and Mrs. C. Kimak.

The pageant commenced with conch shell blower Richard Lum announcing the entrance of the royal court. Kalihii bearers who led the royal procession were Gerry Koester, Roger Cordry, Stanley Burek and Joe Keppler, Navy enlisted men in Supply. Handsome King Peter Dela Cruz and stately Queen Annabelle Pescaia entered followed by the lovely Princesses representing each of the six islands and appropriately clad in colorful garments signifying their islands. Princesses were Mary Ann Baker, Ada Wolfe, Roberta Pahia, Norma Kuwaye, Millie Blau, and Alice Morisako.

Irene Lum, as always, was superb in several hulas. Other dancers included Beverly Ann Carr, Judy De Mello and Margaret Victorino.

Representatives of various races and a brief history of their migration to the Isles was one of the highlights of the program featuring Betty Pang, Amy Kidani and Gavino Ordonez dressed in their native costumes. Vocalist Henry Tamayel entertained with a Japanese song.

Narration throughout the program was splendidly done by Vivian Carvalho who introduced each participant and gave a brief history of the customs of ancient Hawaii.

Alma Ho and James Ako sang the traditional Ke Kala Nei Au accompanied by talented musicians Edward Ogawa, James Ako and James Hoapili.

Climaxing the program was the announcement of various contest winners. The most beautiful division honors went to the Accounting Division, Comptroller Department where approximately 400 vanda orchids made up their beautiful floral decoration. The most original decoration honors went to the Material Division Office, Supply Department for the quaint little island huts made of net, each hut bearing a Hawaiian name signifying the particular branch supervisor.

Hawaiian dress and shirt prizes were awarded to Mary Joan Hee, Bill Butler, Amy Kidani, Thomas Montgomery, Grace Watson, Herman Lee, Irene Lum, June Chun, Norma Kuwaye and Caroline Shimada.

RAY HIGHTOWER TO CALIFORNIA ON TAD

Raymond Hightower, Leadingman, Fuel Operations will leave around November 1 for California. The Station is sending Mr. Hightower for about two weeks to NAS Miramar, MCAS, El Toro and NAS Moffett Field to make a detailed study of high-speed fueling facilities. High-speed apron fuel facilities for serving jet engine aircraft are facilities which are capable of fueling large numbers of aircraft at rapid rates of flow. This will not eliminate motor refuelers or fuel stands but will reduce their number. This Station is in the process of building a high speed fueling system.

Ray is one of the oldtimers on the Station, having been on board first in 1939 when he was with the contractors. He was employed by the Station, then NAS Kaneohe in 1941 until it was deactivated, then he worked with the Fuel Depot in Pearl Harbor prior to returning here in 1951.

He will return to his normal duties on Nov. 18.

POI LUNCHEON

The employees of the Public Works Maintenance Control Division enjoyed a Hawaiian luncheon on Oct. 25. The employees wish to thank Edith Corbett for her hard work in coordinating the luncheon and Richard Lee for the lovely floral display.

WORLD SERIES HILITES

Two-time Purple Heart winner Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer, a sergeant in the Marine Corps Reserve, established a new Series record by hitting in 14 consecutive World Series games.

GRAB SESSION—Marine receiver Lt. Jim Milne and an unidentified Ram defender wrestle with a 22 yard pass from quarterback Lt. "Pinky" Nisbet just three yards short of the goal line during first quarter action of last Saturday's 33-0 Leatherneck triumph here at K-Bay's Dailey Field. Milne finally won possession of the ball and tallied the locals' first touchdown one play later on a plunge over his right tackle. No. 41, coming to his teammate's aid is halfback HM2 Ken Wedemeyer. Varsity Basketball Schedule Set; Opener to Be Played Here Dec. 2

Boasting a lineup which includes five returning members of last year's U-AF champions and four veterans of the 1956-57 Quantico contingent, the current edition of the Hawaii Marines' basketball team will make their debut in the newly organized Hawaii Senior Invitational League Monday, Dec. 2 here at land in the inaugural tilt of the Marine 32-game cage calendar. Game time is 8 p.m.

Returning for his second tour of duty at the helm of the local basketball squad, Maj. Norfolk has Lts. Ted Henderson (center) and Jack Keller (forward), Cpl. Jack Mitchell (forward), and Pfc. Johnnie Wilson (guard) and George Wall (forward) returning from last year's crack court aggregation which compiled an enviable 28-3 record against local competition, and four ex-Quantico standouts. Lts. John Fannon (forward), Franklin Julian (guard), Garry Lawrence (guard) and Bob Reese (forward) in his fold.

Fannon along with another newcomer Lt. William Weiman both are former Notre Dame stars. Julian is an ex-Dartmouth standout and Reese and Lawrence once carried the colors for Fordham and St. Johns Universities, respectively.

Other newcomers are: Pfc. Dale B. Daugherty (guard), Cpl. Charles R. Kelley (guard) and Pfc. Lafayette Slaughter (forward).

All but two of the 14-man squad boast collegiate experience.

A total of nine teams are entered in the Senior circuit. Eight of them are military representatives and one, Ah Chew Goc's L. J. Balfours is a civilian entry. Other teams comprising the loop are: the Marines, SubPac, NAS Ford Island, ComServFac, Barber's Pt., Coast Guard, Air Force and Naval Station.

Senior Invitational League games will be played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, and Saturday afternoons. The Saturday contests will be televised and will be played at Bloch Arena, Pearl Harbor, beginning at 3 p.m. each week.

It has also been announced that Hawaii will host this year's All Marine Basketball Championships, beginning the second week of March.

If it's news, call the WINDWARD MARINE at 72104.

Honolulu Stadium to Be Site Of Perennial Grid Encounter

Upwards of 12,000 grid fans are expected to fill Honolulu Stadium to capacity this Sunday afternoon when the Hawaii Marines and University of Hawaii Rainbows resume their three-year-old grid rivalry. Game time is 2:30. Needing the victory to remain in contention for the University-Armed Forces conference crown, coach Maj. "Boss"

Hewlett's eleven will enter the annual fracas boasting a season's slate of three wins and two losses as compared to the 4-1 mark held by Hank Vasconcellos's Rainbow eleven.

Sunday's battle will be the "rubber game" of the current four-game series established by the arch rivals since the Leathernecks consolidated their teams into one unit in 1953. Both the Rainbows and the Marines have won and lost two. In 1954 the University upset the favored Marines 45-13 and the following grid season saw two clubs break even in two encounters. Last year the Leathernecks' undefeated championship season was climaxed by a thrilling 7-2 "battle in the mud" victory over the 'Bows.

On the basis of comparable scores this season, the 'Bows have one victory and the Marines two, over Lt. Dan Garza's winless Hawaii Navy aggregation. The Leathernecks boast 12-7 and 49-7 triumphs over the Bluejackets while the University recorded a 26-7 win over Navy last weekend.

With no injuries to key personnel reported by either camp, both teams should be in tip-top shape for Sunday's contest.

Coach Hewlett will probably start the same lineup which knocked the league leading civilian Hawaii Rams from the ranks of the undefeated last Saturday afternoon here at Dailey Field.

At the ends will be Lts. Roger Haire and Dick Gagliardi. The tackle positions will be manned by Sgt. John Glover and Cpl. Manny Congedo and Lt. Mike Collins and Pfc. Joe D'Agostino will get the nod at the guard slots. Team captain Lt. Vince Jazwinski will be at center.

The starting Leatherneck backfield will be composed of Lt. John "Pinky" Nisbet at quarter, Lt. Jim Milne and HM2 Ken Wedemeyer at the halves and Lt. Fred Franco at fullback.

The Rainbows are led by the three George brothers, Henry, Talbot and Nolan, all backfield men, and quarterback Don Botelho, whose pinpoint passes to end Solin Chock have spelled trouble for all U of H opponents this year.

Kailua Midgets Top Devilpups

The K-Bay Devilpups lost their second consecutive game in the Oahu Pop Warner Midget Football League last Saturday morning here when the visiting Kailua midgets defeated the locals by a count of 29-7.

Hampered by a recent outbreak of the flu which benched regular center Fred McConly and weakened three other first stringers, coach TSgt. Al Rappold's Station contingent finally broke into the scoring column late in the final period when Mike Smock plowed over the right side of his line for the TD. Quarterback Rod Nicol's sneak for the extra point was good.

Up to that point the Devilpups had failed to capitalize on numerous scoring drives which had found the MCAS midgets close to paydirt throughout the contest.

Lineman Donald Langston performed yeoman duty for the locals by rotating to virtually every position in the line. Donald played most of the game.

Tomorrow morning at the midget football field located alongside Hank Bauer Little League Park here, the Devilpups will meet Kailuansole. Game time is 10 a.m.

14th Naval District Pistol Meet Nov. 9

The Monthly 14th Naval District Pistol Tournament will be held at the Hawaii National Guard Range, Diamond Head Crater, Saturday, Nov. 9.

Registration will begin at 7:30 a.m. and the first match will get underway at 8 o'clock.

6-Man Football

ServBn and MB Tied for Lead

Marine Barracks, P. H. and Serv. Bn. (1stMarBrig) each scored impressive victories during the week's Brigade-Station 6-Man Football action to move into a tie for first place in the 11 team circuit. Each of the two squads boasts three consecutive wins. At present, the 2nd Bn., 4th Marines team is in the runner-up slot with a record of 2-0.

The Pearl Harbor Leathernecks shellacked the till-now-idle 3rd Bn., 4th Marines 39-18 last Wednesday, Oct. 23, and the co-league leaders down Hq Co. HMR-161 (1st MarBrig) Monday afternoon here at field one by a count of 26-6.

A brief recap of other 6-Man grid action over the week's play is as follows:

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 23
2nd Bn. 48—Camp Smith 18

MAKING A POINT THE HARD WAY is Pfc. Bob O'Connor (No. 61) shown throwing a successful point after touchdown pass (arrow) to receiver Cpl. The battalion representatives got off to a fast start by scoring three times in the first period of play. With 2nd Bn. using reserves, however, the Camp Smith squad came to life late in the initial quarter and tallied three times themselves. The half time score was 20-18.

With the regulars back in the lineup as second half play got underway, 2nd Bn. received the kickoff and drove 72 yards for the score and from then on were never headed. Cpl. T. J. Ferguson and Pfc. J. Rodriguez, 2nd Bn. halfbacks, led the victors' running attack in the second half to rout the Leeward candidates by a 30 point margin.

Marine Barracks 39—3rd Bn. 18
Sgt. L. K. Baybayan's 10 yard pass to Pfc. C. C. Soto and Pfc. B. N. Hamma's 10 yard end run gave Marine Barracks a 14-0 bulge at the half.

3rd Bn. broke into the point column the third play of the second half on a pass and lateral play but moments later, the Pearl Harbor delegates tallied what proved to be the winning TD on a 30 yard pass play which went from Pfc. Hamma to Pfc. Soto.

Marine Barracks scored three more times, two of these scores a result of Baybayan's fine passing. Sgt. M. Nagaliames intercepted a 3rd Bn. lateral and scampered the remaining 25 yards into paydirt for the final Marine Barracks tally. See 6-MAN FOOTBALL P-7

ONE MORE TIME—The Hawaii Marine grid machine's drive for its second touchdown of the game was stalled momentarily in the first quarter of last Saturday's 33-0 rout of the league-leading Rams when a host of enemy tacklers stopped Pfc. Ed Post (arrow) just inches shy of the goal line. Lt. Jim Milne followed Post's bid with a TD thrust over his right side just one play later, however, to make it 13-0 with three minutes left to play in the initial period. Leathernecks Shut-out Rams 33-0 To Gain 3rd Victory of Campaign

Coach Maj. Marvin "Boss" Hewlett's hard-charging varsity eleven gained sweet revenge at K-Bay's Dailey Field last Saturday afternoon when they walloped the civilian Hawaii Rams to the tune of 33-0 before 4,000 partisan spectators here. More than making up for the 12-14 defeat suffered at the hands of the Rams a few weeks earlier, the inspired Leathernecks took advantage of every break, scoring twice in each of the first two periods and once again in the third quarter, in routing the previously unbeaten U-AF conference leaders.

A combination of alert defensive play, some dazzling bits of broken-field running, crisp blocking and some razor sharp passing by quarterback Lt. "Pinky" Nisbet told the story as the Marines racked up their third victory of the season. The locals have lost two.

Guard Lt. Mike Collins got the Marines on their scoring way midway in the first quarter when he blocked a Ram quick-kick attempt on the 27. Moments later Lt. Jim Milne plunged over from the three for the initial Leatherneck tally. Milne's kick for the extra point was good.

Four minutes later Milne once again cracked the right side of his line for his second TD of the contest. Pfc. Ed Post garnered the third Leatherneck touchdown early in the second period on a beautiful 16-yard romp over his left side with Cpl. Al Daniels booting the pigskin squarely through the uprights for the extra point making it Marines 20—Rams 0 with four minutes remaining in the half.

Moments later Lt. Collins staged another fine defensive play when he snatched an errant aerial on the Ram 38 and, with the help of a bone-cracking downfield block by Pvt. Tom Gates, rambled into the end zone for the locals' fourth tally. The try for the point was good and the Marines enjoyed a 27 point bulge at the intermission.

A hustling Ram defense somewhat thwarted the Leathernecks' offensive in the second half but the locals met the challenge in the final minutes of the fourth period when "Pinky" Nisbet fired a long pass to end Lt. Dick Gagliardi who gathered the aerial in and with the assistance of some spectacular downfield blocking raced over the goal line for the final tally.

This Monday coach Hewlett and a 32-man travelling squad will fly to the Mainland where they will engage San Diego State Nov. 9 and the MCRD eleven, once again a week later.

MAG-13 Champions 35—Hq&HqSq 34

Behind 20-34 with only four minutes remaining in the game, the Champions staged a "picture finish" to nip the Station representatives by the slim margin of a single point.

The dazzling broken field running of big Percy Price and the passing of quarterback Sgt. Jack Mayberry had given Hq&HqSq what appeared to be a comfortable 14 point advantage when the MAG-13 squad tallied its fourth touchdown on a pass from Pfc. Bob O'Connor to Cpl. John Murphy. The pass attempt for the extra point was good but with only about two minutes remaining, the Station representatives still appeared to have the contest on ice. The tide turned rapidly however, when a costly Hq&HqSq fumble on the second play after the kick-off gave the Champions the ball on the mid-field stripe.

With little over a minute to play, MAG-13's Murphy hauled in another TD pass, this time from back Pfc. Craig Allen to bring the Champions within one point of the leaders.

Pfc. C. H. Johnson then executed a hop and step and booted the ball squarely through the uprights to give his squad the necessary two points for the victory.

MONDAY, OCT. 28

Serv. Bn 26—Hq. Co./HMR-161—(1stMarBrig) 6

After a rugged first half which saw both teams scoring once and which featured fine defensive play by both contending squads, Serv. Bn. tallied what proved to be the winning tally early in the third period on a five yard end run by Cpl. L. House. The victors broke the game wide open in the final quarter with two more touchdowns, one of them on a 40 yard pass play from House to Pfc. H. Reid and the other on a beautiful 50 yard run by Reid to give Serv. Bn. their third straight win in league play.
