

Fort Riley POST

Home of the  1st Infantry Division

September 2, 2022

Volume 3 | Issue 35

Fort Riley, USD 475 sign agreement that saves both agencies money

The second Intergovernmental Support Agreement between USD 475 Geary Co. and Fort Riley was signed Tuesday that will save both entities in costs of design and construction projects. This is the 5th IGSA that Fort Riley leaders have signed with community partners. These agreements save money, time and build solid partnerships between the installation and the surrounding communities.

Preparedness Month launches

September is National Preparedness Month. The Ready Army website offers several tips and tricks to keep you and your family safe during natural and man-made disasters. Do you have an emergency plan? What's in your kit and how do you check to make sure you are ready? ready.army.mil has more information to help you prepare.

Fort Riley historic location

The Global War on Terrorism Memorial near Cavalry Parade Field. The GWOT Memorial was dedicated in 2003. The monument's parts represent each of the sites attacked Sept. 11, 2011.

Doc Jargon

Military life is complicated. Doc Jargon offers insight on military terms and slang. This week, Doc explains why there is so much yelling in basic training.

Fort Riley the Podcast

This week Fort Riley the Podcast covers the tradition that became labor day and a message from USAG Command Sgt. Maj. Jason R. Poulin.

News Around the Army

- Commissary offers savings on emergency supplies during National Preparedness Month
- McConville: 'We can't do what we do as an Army without the National Guard'
- Four years in, AFC continues to bring Army modernization to the forefront

